Total Hours		120

¹ The minimum acceptable level of competency is completion of the 101 level of a language. Students who place into the 102 or higher level of a language satisfy the language requirement but will have additional hours in general education electives, if hours are required by their degree program.

To be eligible to take the CPA exam in South Carolina, a person must have 120 semester credit hours, including 24 hours of accounting and 24 hours of other business courses. To qualify for the CPA license in South Carolina, a person must have 150 semester credit hours with a baccalaureate or higher degree with 36 hours in accounting (with at least 24 hours at the junior level or above) and 36 hours of other business courses. Please see an accounting advisor concerning additional requirements.

Students planning to take the Certified Public Accountant examination should take ACCT U437 Advanced Accounting in addition to the accounting concentration courses.

Consult with advisor regarding the acceptability of ACCT U455 Topics in Accounting toward satisfying the South Carolina CPA 150 hour rule.
