USC Upstate Foundation, Inc.

Chartered in 1973, the USC Upstate Foundation serves as the philanthropic arm of the University of South Carolina Upstate. It enhances the University's educational experience by advancing strategic priorities that create transformative opportunities through endowment, scholarship, academic, programmatic, and capital support.

Accredited as a non-profit organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service code, the Foundation exists to seek and accept gifts of charitable, benevolent, cultural and educational purposes for the exclusive benefit of the University and those it serves. The USC Upstate Foundation Board of Directors, which is comprised of regional community leaders, governs, manages and guides the operations of the Foundation, as well as advocates for the University.
